

Brandeis National Committee – Membership

Please complete this form (2 pages) and return with check for membership

Welcome to our Tucson Chapter of Brandeis National Committee. Our nationwide 21,000 members belong to 35 chapters throughout the United States. Our year-round activities stimulate mind and body and share a common interest in learning, building local friendships, and supporting the ongoing research at Brandeis University.

Whether new to Tucson, a winter resident, or long time Tucsonan looking for something new; we have programs for you! Some benefits of being a Brandeis member include:

- Becoming part of a vibrant community of learners
- Participate in a variety of peer led study groups
- Develop social connections that may lead to lifelong friendships
- Attending presentations by Brandeis faculty
- Volunteer in community service programs
